

ROADHOUSE STORYTELLERS™

March 21, 2018 7:00-9:00 PM

Pittsboro Roadhouse Cafe

Beginning at 7:00 PM, five master storytellers will entertain you at the renowned Pittsboro Roadhouse on US 64 in downtown Pittsboro. Plan to get there by 6:30 to order your dinner and first round of drinks before the stories begin. There is no cover charge (!), but there will be a tip bucket. Our storytellers tell edgy but family friendly, true stories and tall tails from their own experiences or those of people they know! Come hear them tell their tales.

Alan Hoal www.thehoalstory.com became a fan of storytelling upon his first visit to the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee, in 1990. This interest has grown over the years into a passion as a storyteller and festival producer, His repertoire ranges from the hilarious to the heartwarming to the frightening. Alan is the cofounder, with his wife Carol, of the Sounds of the Mountains Storytelling Festival in Roanoke Virginia which is going on its 18th year.

Robin Kitson www.robinkitson.com loves taking an audience along with her. Her trips of the mind are like those she heard as a child in the Ninth Ward of New Orleans where stories roll down the river clothed in fog. Robin often has folks rolling in the aisle while learning about life in the land of the Cajuns or her days living in a tin house overseas.

Sherry Lovett sherrylovet.org has been a teacher, a media specialist, homeschooler, workshop facilitator, and storyteller. Sherry swirls together a magical stew to delight audiences from school assemblies to a variety of adult performances. She delivers stories with beautiful language and graceful movements. Her mission is to inspire, encourage, entertain, and connect with people through the art of storytelling.

Chris Wise is a retired soldier, story teller, song maker, and a fanatic fan of the Durham Bulls. What separates song, stories, truth, meditations on the meaning of truth, and outright lies?

Willa Brigham www.willabrigham.com Welcome to the lively, animated and wonderfully wacky world of two-time Emmy Award winning storyteller, inspirational speaker, and Midnight Quilter, Willa Brigham. Willa is original, creative and enthusiastically engaging. Her performance educates, entertains and inspires. She will leave you feeling better about yourself, others, and this world we live in.

Sam Pearsall, tonight's emcee, is the producer of Roadhouse Storytellers™. He's a retired ecologist who grew up on screened porch stories, and has been telling stories all his life. Sam's motto: With every good story, the further in you go, the bigger it gets.
