

ROADHOUSE STORYTELLERS®

November 14, 2018 7:00-9:00 PM

Pittsboro Roadhouse Cafe

STORIES ABOUT STORYTELLING!

Beginning at 7:00 PM, five master storytellers will entertain you at the renowned Pittsboro Roadhouse on US 64 in downtown Pittsboro. Plan to get there by 6:30 to order your dinner and first round of drinks before the stories begin. There is no cover charge (!!), but there will be a tip bucket. The food, drinks, and stories are always superb. What a night in historic downtown Pittsboro!

J. A. Bolton (www.jabolton.com) was raised in Richmond County N.C. along the banks of the Pee Dee River where he loved to hear the old characters tell their tall tales. JA finds telling stories is a good stress reliever for himself as well as his listeners. He's Richmond County's Own Professional Storyteller. His motto: Live, Love and Laugh.

ReVonda Crow (www.revondacrow.com) fell in love with stories from a young age and is a native North Carolinian, living in the NC Blue Ridge Mountains. ReVonda enjoys telling spooky stories, Jack Tales, and tales with a twist. She is very proud to carry on her Southern heritage of storytelling.

"Miss Alice" Cunningham (www.alicesparty.net) is both The Tea Party Lady and Storyteller. She has been doing dress up tea parties for girls and ladies at Alice's Place in Winston-Salem, N.C. for twenty-one years. She began sharing stories with children, then joined a writing group and began writing stories from her life, growing up in the 1950's. She is a member and officer of the North Carolina Storytelling Guild.

Jim Lavender (drjimlive.com) has lived a storybook life, having overcome learning disabilities to earn Masters and Doctorate degrees, star as Lil Abner, perform with circus animals, and serve as a Methodist pastor for 40 years. Today, Jim Lavender is a nationally touring, award-winning storyteller.

Linda Goodman (www.lindagoodmanstoryteller.com) is a Virginia Appalachian Mountain native who has been a professional storyteller for 30 years. She also is an award-winning author, recording artist, and playwright. As one fan puts it, "When I hear Linda Goodman tell stories, I feel like everything will be okay."

Sam Pearsall (SamStories.org) the event's emcee, is the producer of Roadhouse Storytellers. He's a retired ecologist who grew up on screened porch stories, and has been telling stories all his life. Sam's motto: With every good story, the further in you go, the bigger it gets.

The next Roadhouse Storytellers® event will be on January 16, 2019 at 7 PM at the Pittsboro Roadhouse. Don't miss it!
