Alan Hoal

In a One-Man Show

FREE: 7:00-9:00 PM Wednesday February 13, 2019.

Pittsboro Roadhouse, 39 West St, Pittsboro, NC

Alan Hoal is an award-winning storyteller whose animated style and familiar themes draw his audiences into his tales as they experience the stories' events alongside his colorful characters. Alan grew up in Roanoke Virginia, surrounded by the iconic Blue Ridge Mountains. He spent much of his childhood discovering the mystery and beauty of this idyllic setting, whether it was family trips along the Blue Ridge Parkway, hiking the Appalachian Trail or learning the skills of snipe hunting from his older brother Mike. Alan grew up in a family of colorful parents, siblings, cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents. This eclectic assortment of characters and environment has provided Alan with rich material to enliven his stories.

Alan is the past winner of the North Carolina Liar's competition, (including two-time winner of the people's choice award) as well as winner of the Virginia Tale competition. Describing his material as an assortment of true stories, exaggerations and out right fabrications Alan's broad range of material is designed to suit audiences of all ages.
