An Evening of Great Storytelling with Sam Pearsall

Beginning at 7:00 PM, Sam Pearsall will tell stories in a one-man show at the renowned Pittsboro Roadhouse on US 64 in downtown Pittsboro. We will be inaugurating the 2019-2020 season of Roadhouse storytelling, and Sam will be celebrating his 70th birthday.

Plan to get there by 6:30 to order your dinner and first round of drinks before the stories begin. There is no cover charge (!!), and on this special occasion, there will be no tip bucket. The food, drinks, and stories at the Roadhouse are always superb.

Come celebrate and listen to Sam's stories at the Pittsboro Roadhouse!

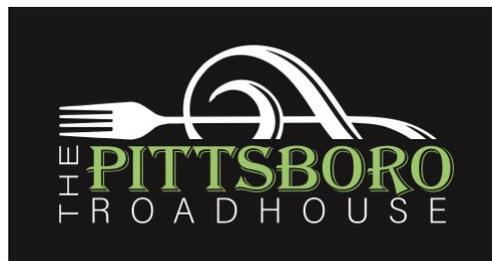

Sam has told true stories and tall tales all his life, usually to friends and family. He retired in 2013 following 35 years as an ecologist working with conservation organizations in Maine, Tennessee, Hawaii, and North Carolina. Beginning with his retirement, Sam took to the stage to tell stories to non-captive audiences. Tonight, his true stories are drawn entirely from his own life experiences.

Sam says we are all made of stories! Stories are what we remember, what we dream of, and how we think of each other. And every story is a whole world. As the author John Crowley said, "with any good story, the further in you go, the bigger it gets."

Sam founded Roadhouse Storytellers® in March 2017 and has produced 13 shows featuring 48 storytellers since then. Tonight is his opportunity, not just to emcee or tell one or two stories, but to spend an evening with family and friends celebrating a whole life of storytelling.

The next Roadhouse Storytellers® event (after this one) will feature 5 magnificent tellers on November 13, 2019 at 7 PM at the Pittsboro Roadhouse. Don't miss it!
