

ROADHOUSE STORYTELLERS®

November 13, 2019 7:00-9:00 PM

Pittsboro Roadhouse Cafe

Beginning at 7:00 PM, five master storytellers will entertain you at the renowned Pittsboro Roadhouse on US 64 in downtown Pittsboro. Plan to get there by 6:30 to order your dinner and first round of drinks before the stories begin. There is no cover charge (!!), but there will be a tip bucket. The food, drinks, and stories are always superb. What a night in historic downtown Pittsboro!

ReVonda Crow (<http://www.revondacrow.com/>) fell in love with stories from a young age and is a native North Carolinian, living in the NC Blue Ridge Mountains. ReVonda enjoys telling spooky stories, Jack Tales, and tales with a twist. She has told in Ireland, at the Sneem Storytelling and Folk Festival. She is very proud to carry on her Southern heritage of storytelling.

Gale Buck (<http://www.woodsmanstories.com>) spends most of his creative time in worlds of fantasy and adventure. Winner of the Bold Faced Liars' Showdown and South Carolina's Liars Champion, Gale learned how to spin a tale from other tellers. He now shares what he has learned with the Village Storytellers in Raleigh.

Charlie St Clair has been telling stories to family and friends all his life and has appeared publicly for the past twelve years around Asheville. Sit back and listen as Charlie tells you crazy stories about drag races, the Old West, ghosts and spirits, and even computers! When Bill Lepp, West Virginia Liars Contest Champion, heard Charlie's drag race story he said "I wish I'd thought of that!"

A native North Carolinian, Ron Jones (www.rijones.com) tells original stories and sometimes might just pick up the guitar and sing along too. He was awarded the Order of the Long Leaf Pine by Governor James B. Hunt in 1982 for his contribution to children and libraries.

Brian Sturm (<http://ils.unc.edu/~sturm>) has been a storyteller for over 20 years. At the UNC School of Information and Library Science, he has focused his research on the state of being immersed in whatever you are doing, e.g., reading, story listening, video games. His Story Squad brings world folklore into hospitals, libraries, and schools.

Sam Pearsall (SamStories.org) the event's emcee, is the producer of Roadhouse Storytellers. He's a retired ecologist who grew up on screened porch stories, and has been telling stories all his life. Sam's motto: With every good story, the further in you go, the bigger it gets. That is certainly so at the Roadhouse!

The next Roadhouse Storytellers® event will be on January 15, 2020 at 7 PM at the Pittsboro Roadhouse. Don't miss it!
