

ROADHOUSE STORYTELLERS®

JUNE 12, 2019 7:00-9:00 PM

Pittsboro Roadhouse Cafe

Beginning at 7:00 PM, to celebrate her birthday, Cynthia Raxter <http://cynthiaraxter.blogspot.com/> will entertain you in a superb one-woman show at the renowned Pittsboro Roadhouse on US 64 in downtown Pittsboro. Plan to get there by 6:30 to order your dinner and first round of drinks before the stories begin. There is no cover charge (!!), but there will be a tip bucket. The food, drinks, and stories are always superb.

Come help Cynthia celebrate at the Pittsboro Roadhouse!

Cynthia says, "We are born with a love of stories inside us. We literally spend our lives waiting and listening for the next story."

Cynthia lives in the former mill village of Bynum, NC with 4 cats, 1 kitten and Rascal the "Jack Russell Terrorist." She grew up on a farm in the North Carolina mountains with 6 brothers and sisters and a big extended family!

Cynthia tells true, original, real-life stories for all age groups. She tells farm stories from her childhood. She shares her father's and mother's stories of the Depression. She brings to life her ancestors' stories from Sassafras Mountain. For small children she tells stories about "Rascal and the wiley critters at my house."

Her stories promote good values and self-worth with creativity and humor: Modern-day David and Goliath's - The Odyssey Winnebago-style - Aesop's Fables a la Frozen Creek.

"We are the heroes and heroines of our own stories. Day-to-day life is special."

She produces the Bynum Front Porch Storytelling series and leads the Bynum Workshop for Storytelling and Comedy - both in their fifth year in Chatham County, NC. She speaks at conferences, performs in schools and leads workshops across the state.

The next Roadhouse Storytellers® event (after this one) will feature at 7 PM at the Pittsboro Roadhouse. Don't miss it either!

Sam Pearsall on September 7, 2019
